COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Cornie Rice was on this side Sunday.

Grant Lacy, of your town, gave us a pleasant call Sunday.

Moody Lacy took in the campmeeting at Ezel Sunday.

"Charley" took a wagon load of the young folks to the campmeeting Sunday.

Aunt Kittie Nickell, of Grassy, is again in our midst visiting kinsfolk.

John Nickell and family, of Gillmore, spent Sunday with his uncle, J. E. Brooks and family.

W. G. W. Crucey and wife, of Lacy creek, were in this section Sunday. Mr. Crucey wears a broad smile these days.

The corn at this place is laying flat on the ground from the effects of the storm last week. It makes the beans mighty hard to pick.

Amanda Brooks passed through here Sunday on her way to Crockett Coldiron's, of South Hazel Green. She said that Mr. Coldiron had a very sick baby.

A large black snake jumped out of a bush over our head Tuesday and to say that this old sister had to step would only be telling part, for we were most scared to death, and so was the snake. The yellow dog was not with us.

Misses Cordia Bronnemen and Callie Taulbee, of your town, spent last Wednesday with your writer, and we had planned the biggest stroll for the afternoon, but that storm came up, and again we had to yield to fate. Come again girls, and we will try it over.

O. "Shiner," of all the preachers that we ever met you are the biggest flatterer; the very idea of you trying to make a girl think that she is a charming young lady. You ought to quit that since you promised her and the preacher that you would forsake all others and live for her only.

Incidentally we learn that Bud Swango, of Stillwater, Ky., will run the dormitory for our school this year. To our notion, a more suitable man for the place would be hard to find. He is the largest man we ever saw, but he is every inch a gentleman. Having shared the hospitalities of his home, we know whereof we speak, and should he undertake to run the "home," he would be both able and willing to accommodate all boarders to the fullest extent. Now, that's our way of thinking.

Last spring we made a business call on the editor and his wife, and found him very sick, not able to do anything for the paper, and the correspondents had almost ceased to write. If they wrote at all, they did not average once a month. So he and his wife insisted on us to write for THE HERALD, and to accommodate them only we began to write. If we have been a special favorite, we are not aware of the fact; what we do for the paper is gratis. Mr. Cooper needs and deserves more than we can do, and under the circumstances it was our duty to assist him.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Clay Cecil, of Consolation, was seen passing through here Saturday.

J. G. Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, and W. O. Mize, of Hazel Green, were in our midst last week.

Miss Lummie Campbell, John Donnell and S. F. Huddleson, all of Carlisle, are among the late arrivals at the Springs.

Miss Minnie Day, of your town, in company with Miss Serepta Rawlings, a charming lady of Covington, were very pleasant callers at the Spring Saturday.

Oh, say! Uncle Sam, I know that "What is home" is the best piece of your composing. I have had the pleasure of reading. That word "home," always sounds like poetry to me. It does not matter whether it means thatched cottage or manor house, home is home, be it ever so homely there is no place on earth like it. The only spot on earth where the faults and failings of fallen humanity are hidden under the mantle of charity.

FRENCHBURG SPARKLES.

Turner Wells and W. C. Taylor paid Mt. Sterling a business trip on Monday last.

C. D. Swim bought last week from Wm. Suter and Frank Oster nine large hogs at 4 cts. a pound.

More horses and buggies can be seen here on Sunday than in any other place of its size in Kentucky.

W. K. Tabor, of Rothwell, recently went to Jackson, Ky., to invoice stock of goods formerly belonging to Henry Noble.

Nest Frisby tells me there is not one case of sickness in town. This speaks well of the place. It is too distressingly healthy for the doctors.

Mrs. C. F. Clark, Mrs. Henry Johns, Mrs. Lizzie Jackson and Mrs. Ollie Collier paid Mrs. Eddie Collier, of McCausey, a pleasant visit one day last week.

Ellis Tackeggs has returned from the republican convention at Irvin, Ky., and report the nomination of Hopkins to the general satisfaction of the republicans of Menefee.

John Lombard, of Hastings, Michigan, recently bought the big wood timber in Menefee county, and started 100 men at work on a new railroad to start from Filson, Ky. The terminus will be at Big Woods, where Mr. Lombard will erect five saw mills.

The best water that can be found here is on the premises of C. D. Swim, it is a well that never fails, and noted for its curative powers, as several of the citizens can testify; they have given up the doctors and drank this water constantly, and felt the benefits in a short while.

A rare and obscure picnic was held down the Beaver valley on Saturday last, and was well attended. The erstwhile government whiskey was much in evidence, and as the evening lights were casting its shadow o'er the scene, many black eyes were prominent. Harlan Sexton was cut with a knife, and several others more or less wounded.

Mrs. Dora Swango spent Monday night with ye scribe. Dora says if there is anything she does like it is more good old bacon and beans.

Rev. Ben Blankenship and his charming daughter, Miss Katie, of Salem, were visiting relatives on this creek last week.

E. L. Blankenship, W. J. Wallace, H. H. Blankenship, Barney Blankenship and wife attended the association on War creek from Friday till Sunday.

The people of our neighborhood are making great preparations for the annual meeting.

During a storm last week lightning struck a school house on Elk fork, where Miss Lula Walsh is teaching. The floor was damaged some, but Miss Lula and the pupils were not seriously hurt. Some of the smaller pupils' feet were burned.

Letter From Jim Tom Pieratt.

BUSHTON, Ill., Aug. 28.

Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.
Dear Brother:—You will find enclosed 65c for which send THE HERALD and Farm Journal to W. G. Okley to Fair Grange, Ill. He was formerly of Ezel, Ky.

We are having the hottest weather I think I ever saw, and a good deal of rain.

Everybody is working for dear life to get their broomcorn cut, but hands are very scarce. They are paying $1.50 for hands per day; some offered $1.55.

Joe Catron from near Hazel Green, spent two days with us. He is well pleased with this county and he thinks of locating here if he can find a place to suit him.

The Kentuckians are all well, but there is a good deal of sickness in this county; several cases of typhoid fever. They have small pox at Charleston, but they have it under good control.

Best wishes to everybody. I am as ever your friend,

J. T. PIERATT.

Mrs. Ida Cecil, wife of W. P. Cecil, of Cedar Bluff, Va., died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Josephine Swango, of this place, on Sunday night at 8 o'clock after a protracted illness of several months. The deceased was Ida Swango prior to her marriage, which took place on the 5th of September, 1895. The marriage of these two was blessed with one little girl, but ever since the birth of the child, Mrs. Cecil has been in ill health. At times for the first few years she was able to get about, and thinking the change beneficial, she sometimes stayed at her husband's home in Virginia, and sometimes at her mother's home here. Since coming here the last time, however, she never had sufficient strength to be about, and was a patient sufferer to the end. Besides her husband and little girl who are left to mourn her loss, she has a host of relatives. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Leander Lacy, assisted by Rev. E. K. Pike, and the burial took place in the graveyard of Joseph Kash, deceased, where lie the remains of her father. The pall bearers were Frank Trimble, Robt. Kash, Carl Mize, Bush Swango, Shellie James and Curtis Rose, all of whom were cousins. Judge Swango and Willie Kash acted as directors or undertakers.

Charles Major's New Bear Stories.

The latest work of the author of "When Knighthood was in Flower" has been secured by The Ladies' Home Journal. As would be expected, it has to do with adventure the experiences of some frontier children. There is a childish romance woven into the stories, and they will have a keen interest for boys as well as their elders. Under the heading of "Blue River Bear Stories" Mr. Major's serial will begin in the October Journal.

The boys and girls should read the Farm Journal. It will help keep them on the farm. We will send it five years, the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to every one who will subscribe for THE HERALD; both papers at the price of ours only 65 cents.

FOR SALE—A scholarship in the Commercial College of Kentucky University. By early application at this office some young man can save several dollars. tf.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
of Nebraska.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,
of Estill County.

THE Louisville Atlantic railroad company, which was chartered as the Louisville Southern has purchased the franchise, right of way, etc., of its predecessor and propose to build the road from Irvine to Beattyville, the grading of which can be completed within four months, except the tunnel at Yellow creek. Thence using the Short-line to Walker's creek connecting with the L. & E.; thence up the river to the mouth of Lower Devil's creek; up that stream and along Lower Devil's creek ridge, which abounds with Peacock coal, the vein being 42 inches thick. The route thence would be via Camp-ton, which it would strike at Granville Evans' farm, and on to Hazel Green at the Caney coal fields. But the purpose of the road is to build it to White Post, W. Va., where it will connect with the Norfolk and Western. This would be the shortest route from Louisville to the sea coast yet contemplated, and would penetrate a solid coal field from Lower Devil's creek to White Post, not to mention the Caney coal fields. When Gov. Buckner was canvassing the state in his race for governor, he told the editor of such a contemplated route to the sea coast, and said that C. P. Huntington had long cherished the idea as one of his pet schemes. Gov. Buckner told us at the time that the road would be upwards of 100 miles the shortest route to the sea coast, and that according to Gen. Echols, Mr. Huntington considered it the ideal route.

'SQUIRE JOHN ROSE, magistrate in district No. 2, will be a candidate for re-election, and submit his claims to the primary, which comes off the 15th of next month. John Rose during his incumbency has been a faithful official and in all cases which have come before him has rendered satisfaction. That is to say, he has been just and fair in his rulings. To say "rendered satisfaction" is misleading, for there is always one side in law matters that is dissatisfied, but withal a man can be just, fair, impartial and he has been. A higher tribute could be paid to no man, and his friends hope to see him re-elected.

FRANK STAMPER requests us today that he has been kept at home on account of the illness of one of his children so that he could not this week see many of his constituents that he was desirous of meeting. Mr. Stamper is very sanguine of success since the withdrawal of two opponents. He says he believes the people are better acquainted with him than they are with his opponent, Mr. Bush, and that without disparagement to his young friend he thinks the people will prefer a man who has been tried to one who has not. Mr. Stamper has been in the public service both as deputy sheriff and as jailer, and his record being clear, he has every reason to believe the people will endorse him by giving him the nomination for sheriff, and in return he promises that if they do so he will strive in every way to conduct the office in a satisfactory manner to all concerned. That Mr. Stamper has a host of friends who will stand by him in the primary is an assured fact, and his friends claim that he will have enough votes in the primary to give him the nomination. Indeed they say he would have won with all candidates in the field and that the withdrawal of two of them strengthens his chances. Frank Stamper would make a good officer, is the opinion generally of the people with whom we have talked, but mind you, in saying so we do so without detriment to our young friend Bush, and as the primary will come off on the 15th of next month the matter will then be settled as to the nomination.

This is to announce that I am no longer a candidate for the office of sheriff. Some months since, notwithstanding that my sight had been impaired for quite awhile, I, at the solicitation of friends and to gratify my personal ambition, announced for the office of sheriff. I could not get to see the people and talk with them as I should have liked, owing to the continued affection of my eyes, but nevertheless I was every day encouraged to go ahead, and every day my prospects for securing the nomination grew brighter. But in the meantime my eyesight is impaired to such an extent that I feel it would be suicidal to go ahead. In short, while I feel that the office—thanks to the good people of the county—was within my grasp, that my eyesight is worth more to me than the office would be. Hence I withdraw, and in doing so I want to thank the many friends who have proffered their support, and I want them to feel—aye, to know that I am ready at all times to reciprocate. And again, I want it clearly understood that I withdraw in favor of no man. I am thankful, indeed, to all who have interested themselves in my behalf. To all those who have made the canvass against me I have only the kindest feeling, and whoever of them shall receive the nomination may rely upon my assistance up to the time the polls close.

Some other time, in the dim and distant future, I hope to avail of the votes that have proffered in this instance, and meanwhile I pledge my personal aid and influence to all Beckham-Bryan democrats.

Again and again thanking you all, I am, yours for a victorious democracy, DAVID LINDEN.

THE cost of the army and navy will aggregate over $50,000,000—nearly four times as much as our government ever spent for the same purpose in any year before Mr. McKinley became president. Apparently, at the present rate of progress, the American working-man will soon be called upon to carry not only a soldier but a sailor upon his back and out of his earnings spend enough to feed, clothe and support the two while they are living and pension their families when they are dead.—Baltimore Sun.

"WHITAR" ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It is neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of the "filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps, and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Clay Cecil, of Consolation, was seen passing through here Saturday.

J. G. Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, and W. O. Mize, of Hazel Green, were in our midst last week.

Miss Lummie Campbell, John Donnell and S. F. Huddleson, all of Carlisle, are among the late arrivals at the Springs.

Miss Minnie Day, of your town, in company with Miss Serepta Rawlings, a charming lady of Covington, were very pleasant callers at the Spring Saturday.

Oh, say! Uncle Sam, I know that "What is home" is the best piece of your composing. I have had the pleasure of reading. That word "home," always sounds like poetry to me. It does not matter whether it means thatched cottage or manor house, home is home, be it ever so homely there is no place on earth like it. The only spot on earth where the faults and failings of fallen humanity are hidden under the mantle of charity.

The best water that can be found here is on the premises of C. D. Swim, it is a well that never fails, and noted for its curative powers, as several of the citizens can testify; they have given up the doctors and drank this water constantly, and felt the benefits in a short while.

A rare and obscure picnic was held down the Beaver valley on Saturday last, and was well attended. The erstwhile government whiskey was much in evidence, and as the evening lights were casting its shadow o'er the scene, many black eyes were prominent. Harlan Sexton was cut with a knife, and several others more or less wounded.

BUSHTON, Ill., Aug. 28.

Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.
Dear Brother:—You will find enclosed 65c for which send THE HERALD and Farm Journal to W. G. Okley to Fair Grange, Ill. He was formerly of Ezel, Ky.

We are having the hottest weather I think I ever saw, and a good deal of rain.

Everybody is working for dear life to get their broomcorn cut, but hands are very scarce. They are paying $1.50 for hands per day; some offered $1.55.

Joe Catron from near Hazel Green, spent two days with us. He is well pleased with this county and he thinks of locating here if he can find a place to suit him.

The Kentuckians are all well, but there is a good deal of sickness in this county; several cases of typhoid fever. They have small pox at Charleston, but they have it under good control.

Best wishes to everybody. I am as ever your friend,

J. T. PIERATT.

Mrs. Ida Cecil, wife of W. P. Cecil, of Cedar Bluff, Va., died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Josephine Swango, of this place, on Sunday night at 8 o'clock after a protracted illness of several months. The deceased was Ida Swango prior to her marriage, which took place on the 5th of September, 1895. The marriage of these two was blessed with one little girl, but ever since the birth of the child, Mrs. Cecil has been in ill health. At times for the first few years she was able to get about, and thinking the change beneficial, she sometimes stayed at her husband's home in Virginia, and sometimes at her mother's home here. Since coming here the last time, however, she never had sufficient strength to be about, and was a patient sufferer to the end. Besides her husband and little girl who are left to mourn her loss, she has a host of relatives. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Leander Lacy, assisted by Rev. E. K. Pike, and the burial took place in the graveyard of Joseph Kash, deceased, where lie the remains of her father. The pall bearers were Frank Trimble, Robt. Kash, Carl Mize, Bush Swango, Shellie James and Curtis Rose, all of whom were cousins. Judge Swango and Willie Kash acted as directors or undertakers.

Charles Major's New Bear Stories.

The latest work of the author of "When Knighthood was in Flower" has been secured by The Ladies' Home Journal. As would be expected, it has to do with adventure the experiences of some frontier children. There is a childish romance woven into the stories, and they will have a keen interest for boys as well as their elders. Under the heading of "Blue River Bear Stories" Mr. Major's serial will begin in the October Journal.

The boys and girls should read the Farm Journal. It will help keep them on the farm. We will send it five years, the remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, to every one who will subscribe for THE HERALD; both papers at the price of ours only 65 cents.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
of Illinois.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BECKHAM,
of Nelson County.

FOR CONGRESS,
J. BANFORD WHITE,

THE Louisville Atlantic railroad company, which was chartered as the Louisville Southern has purchased the franchise, right of way, etc., of its predecessor and propose to build the road from Irvine to Beattyville, the grading of which can be completed within four months, except the tunnel at Yellow creek. Thence using the Short-line to Walker's creek connecting with the L. & E.; thence up the river to the mouth of Lower Devil's creek; up that stream and along Lower Devil's creek ridge, which abounds with Peacock coal, the vein being 42 inches thick. The route thence would be via Camp-ton, which it would strike at Granville Evans' farm, and on to Hazel Green at the Caney coal fields. But the purpose of the road is to build it to White Post, W. Va., where it will connect with the Norfolk and Western. This would be the shortest route from Louisville to the sea coast yet contemplated, and would penetrate a solid coal field from Lower Devil's creek to White Post, not to mention the Caney coal fields. When Gov. Buckner was canvassing the state in his race for governor, he told the editor of such a contemplated route to the sea coast, and said that C. P. Huntington had long cherished the idea as one of his pet schemes. Gov. Buckner told us at the time that the road would be upwards of 100 miles the shortest route to the sea coast, and that according to Gen. Echols, Mr. Huntington considered it the ideal route.

'SQUIRE JOHN ROSE, magistrate in district No. 2, will be a candidate for re-election, and submit his claims to the primary, which comes off the 15th of next month. John Rose during his incumbency has been a faithful official and in all cases which have come before him has rendered satisfaction. That is to say, he has been just and fair in his rulings. To say "rendered satisfaction" is misleading, for there is always one side in law matters that is dissatisfied, but withal a man can be just, fair, impartial and he has been. A higher tribute could be paid to no man, and his friends hope to see him re-elected.

FRANK STAMPER requests us today that he has been kept at home on account of the illness of one of his children so that he could not this week see many of his constituents that he was desirous of meeting. Mr. Stamper is very sanguine of success since the withdrawal of two opponents. He says he believes the people are better acquainted with him than they are with his opponent, Mr. Bush, and that without disparagement to his young friend he thinks the people will prefer a man who has been tried to one who has not. Mr. Stamper has been in the public service both as deputy sheriff and as jailer, and his record being clear, he has every reason to believe the people will endorse him by giving him the nomination for sheriff, and in return he promises that if they do so he will strive in every way to conduct the office in a satisfactory manner to all concerned. That Mr. Stamper has a host of friends who will stand by him in the primary is an assured fact, and his friends claim that he will have enough votes in the primary to give him the nomination. Indeed they say he would have won with all candidates in the field and that the withdrawal of two of them strengthens his chances. Frank Stamper would make a good officer, is the opinion generally of the people with whom we have talked, but mind you, in saying so we do so without detriment to our young friend Bush, and as the primary will come off on the 15th of next month the matter will then be settled as to the nomination.

This is to announce that I am no longer a candidate for the office of sheriff. Some months since, notwithstanding that my sight had been impaired for quite awhile, I, at the solicitation of friends and to gratify my personal ambition, announced for the office of sheriff. I could not get to see the people and talk with them as I should have liked, owing to the continued affection of my eyes, but nevertheless I was every day encouraged to go ahead, and every day my prospects for securing the nomination grew brighter. But in the meantime my eyesight is impaired to such an extent that I feel it would be suicidal to go ahead. In short, while I feel that the office—thanks to the good people of the county—was within my grasp, that my eyesight is worth more to me than the office would be. Hence I withdraw, and in doing so I want to thank the many friends who have proffered their support, and I want them to feel—aye, to know that I am ready at all times to reciprocate. And again, I want it clearly understood that I withdraw in favor of no man. I am thankful, indeed, to all who have interested themselves in my behalf. To all those who have made the canvass against me I have only the kindest feeling, and whoever of them shall receive the nomination may rely upon my assistance up to the time the polls close.

Some other time, in the dim and distant future, I hope to avail of the votes that have proffered in this instance, and meanwhile I pledge my personal aid and influence to all Beckham-Bryan democrats.

Again and again thanking you all, I am, yours for a victorious democracy, DAVID LINDEN.

THE cost of the army and navy will aggregate over $50,000,000—nearly four times as much as our government ever spent for the same purpose in any year before Mr. McKinley became president. Apparently, at the present rate of progress, the American working-man will soon be called upon to carry not only a soldier but a sailor upon his back and out of his earnings spend enough to feed, clothe and support the two while they are living and pension their families when they are dead.—Baltimore Sun.

"WHITAR"

ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It is neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of the "filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps, and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.
